Introduction

This document contains the rules for using the logo. Here you will find basic logo variants, protection zone, minimum logo size, colors and more. It is assumed that what is not written in the logo manual is not possible.

Basic variants of the logo

The logo is derived from the original A.L.M. Contracts.

Monochrome version of the logo

Inverse monochrome version of the logo

Minimum usable logo size

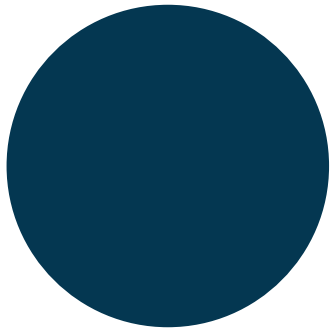

Here is the minimum size that can be used for the logo. You must not use a size smaller than 13 millimeters.

The maximum size is not limited.

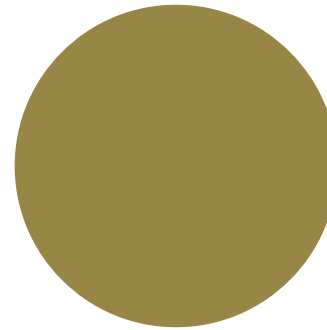

Used colors

The colors used must be used in the given shades, which are listed in this logo manual.

Logo in net

The logo is displayed on a grid where the proportions are marked.
The unit of measure is denoted here as X.
This is derived from the width of the letter N.

Logo protection zone

The protection zone of the logo is given by the height of the letter H. There must be no other objects or inscriptions in the pink marked zone.

The letter H is written in Futura PT Medium font.

Forbidden variants of using the logo

You may not change the colors in the logo.

You may not change the font in the logo.

You must not rotate the logo.

You must not insert the logo on a non-contrasting background.

You may not change the proportions of the logo.
